

Announcing Genital Autonomy America-affiliated Cashback Credit Cards - Apply Now!

Genital Autonomy America (GAA) is pleased to announce the availability of Visa and Mastercard credit cards offering 1% cashback to our non-profit organization. When you apply for either (or both) of these cards, 1% of your accrued charges will be forwarded each quarter to GAA. Both cards feature no annual fee to the cardholder, low introductory interest rates and your cashback donations are tax deductible!

You can use the cards for these everyday expenses:

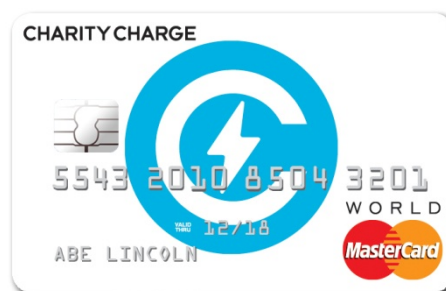

- food shopping (Visa is accepted at all U.S. Costco stores)
- set up auto bill pay for utilities (electric, gas, telephone, cable, internet, etc)
- rent payments (where permitted)
- property taxes and public utilities (water, sewer, etc)
- professional services (lawyer, bookkeeper, accountant, childcare, fitness trainer, etc)
- shopping (holidays, birthdays, back-to-school supplies, etc).
- health and beauty (gym membership, barber/hairdresser, nail service, massage/spa, etc)
- entertainment (restaurants, movies, concerts, sports events, etc)
- automobile expenses (fuel, repairs, tires, etc)
- travel expenses (air, hotel, rental cars, cruises, Uber/Lyft, etc)
- medical bills (dental visits, eyeglasses, prescription drugs, etc)
- ...and much more

Since funding from mainstream grant foundations for children's genital autonomy issues is not yet easy to come by, your Visa or Mastercard cashback contributions through your normal spending patterns can be a major source of funding for Genital Autonomy America.

To apply, use these links. GAA will automatically become your preferred cashback recipient.

Already have a Charity Charge or Halo Card cashback credit card?

Add GA America as one of your preferred cashback donation recipients!

Cardholders can support up to three non-profits at a time with either card, changing the non-profits at any time through their online donation dashboard. With Charity Charge, the 1% cashback is split evenly between the number of non-profits chosen. Halo Card cardholders can specify the percentage of the cashback rewards for each of their chosen organizations.
